

SRVL2

2-Person Emergency Kit

Trust your emergency readiness to Pelican's proven protection

You don't need to be an expert to be prepared — just the right gear. Pelican™ SRVL™ 72-Hour Emergency Kits are built to help you stay focused and take action when every second counts. Developed in partnership with Redfora®, each kit includes certified survival supplies and is housed in a crushproof, waterproof Pelican Protector case—trusted by first responders, military teams, and field professionals worldwide.

Available in 2 and 4-person configurations, SRVL kits are designed for households, families, and shared spaces looking for a smarter way to prepare for wildfires, hurricanes, earthquakes, blackouts, and more.

Ideal for:

- Individuals in earthquake wildfire, flood, tornado or hurricane zones
- Households wanting an emergency preparedness solution with enough supplies for multiple people
- Suburban or rural homes in disaster-prone regions where infrastructure may be slow to recover
- Individuals responsible for elderly relatives, children, or roommates—where coordinating last-minute prep isn't an option
- Emergency preppers looking for a high-capacity, professionally packed system inside the most trusted case on the market
- People who've tried building DIY kits and now want a complete, stress-free alternative

Each kit comes packed with certified Redfora® emergency supplies including:

- Food & Water
- Emergency Water Pouches
- 3600-Calorie Emergency Food Bars
- Personal Water Filter
