Marine Waterproof

Floating Pouch

The Pelican Marine Waterproof Floating Pouch is built to get your phone and valuables through whatever you get into. The Marine pouch is IP68 rated for underwater submersion, but built in air cushions help ensure that it won't be submerged for long. *Pouch must be sealed properly to be waterproof. Appropriate use of the product and any damage incurred while using the product is the responsibility of the user. See the Case-Mate warranty policy for details.

- Built in air cushions provide buoyancy for easier phone retrieval
- Detachable lanyard helps to keep your phone secure
- Clear window allows you to use your phone while inside the pouch
- Compatible with most smartphones
- Trust the brand divers, firefighters, police, military and photographers have depended on since 1976
- IP68 Water Resistant
